FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

5th ANNIVERSARY PARTY MARKS NEW BEGINNING
Northshore Senior Neighborhood Anchor Community Ready for Future

On Friday, April 20th, Chateau at Bothell Landing celebrated its fifth anniversary party in grand style. With five solid years in Bothell's senior housing neighborhood, the company is both celebrating its past and preparing for its future. Chateau St Laurent, a new concept in retirement living called a CCRC (Continuing Care Retirement Community), is scheduled to break ground on the existing campus later this year.

"We pulled out all the stops this year," says Executive Director Brandon Dalke. "It's exciting to see our residents take such pride in their community by inviting so many friends and neighbors." Over three hundred residents and guests enjoyed gourmet food, wine and the music of local artists Mario Amaya and Lexington Avenue.

Dalke adds, "We're excited by the prospect of growing our community." Clearly, the first class celebrations were also staged to announce the arrival of Chateau St Laurent.

Whereas Chateau at Bothell Landing operates on a month-to-month lease, the new CCRC addition has a one time refundable entrance fee.

According to Dalke, 90% of the buy-in entrance fee is refundable. “The financial security afforded by such guaranteed investment returns is enormously appealing,” confides Dalke. He adds, “Think of what we’ll be celebrating at our Ten Year Anniversary!”

Chateau Retirement Communities has been locally and family owned and operated for over twenty years. Chateau residents are inspired to “Live Life on Your Terms” by the company’s wide array of service options that support and encourage independence.
